"Hello Yuria, you are my little sister from today ! Nice to meet you."

I first wrote this in my diary. When I was twelve years old. Yuria came to my family. Yuria was a pretty dog, and she was two months old then. We were happy to live with Yuria, but she could live with us for only one year. She was going to leave my family to be a guide dog. It was a very short time, but it was also a very important time for Yuria. During this time, Yuria could learn to trust humans. Like us, many other families were doing job as volunteer.

My little brother Hiroki was very happy and he always played with Yuria. Before, he always got up late, but he could get up early to go out for a walk with Yuria in the morning. Mother said, "Good girl, Yuria. You taught Hiroki how to get up early. I'm very happy !" Father didn't talk much with us, but he talked to Yuria a lot.

① That was a funny thing for me. Our family enjoyed a happy life with Yuria.

On the last night with Yuria, Hiroki didn't go to his room. He stayed with Yuria. I always wrote something in my diary in my room, ② but I didn't do so on that night, because I wanted to stay with Yuria for a long time. So, Hiroki and I slept in the living room with Yuria.

After that, we lived with little dogs. Some of them became guide dogs like Yuria.

We continued this work, because the dogs taught us many thing. I didn't want to forget them. So, when I began to live with a new dog, I always bought a new diary for each dog. It was also a record of my life.

Ten years passed. One day, Mother said to us, "Do you remember Yuria ? I hear she is not a guide dog now. Maybe, we can live with her again !" I was very happy to hear that, but Father thought for a minute and said, "It is not a good idea and it won't be happy work. Yuria is eleven yars old now. She is very old. She will often get sick, and we will have to take care of her to the end. Can you do that ?" I said, "Of course we can ! Yuria gave us a warm heart and wonderful times. This time, [] hapy days !" We talked a lot, and decided to live with her again. So, I bought a new diary.

"Hello Yuria, I'm your little sister from today !" I will write this in my diary later.
